It is stipulated and agreed by and among counsel for the Plaintiff States and HarperCollins that, subject to Final Approval by the Court, the litigation initiated by the Complaint and the Released Claims shall be finally and fully compromised, settled and released, upon and subject to the terms and conditions of this Settlement Agreement.

III. ORDER AND STIPULATED INJUNCTION

As part of this Settlement Agreement, the Plaintiff States and HarperCollins have agreed to the entry of an Order and Stipulated Injunction in the form of Attachment B, the terms and conditions of which are incorporated into this Settlement Agreement as though set forth in this Section III in full. The Order and Stipulated Injunction shall be modified to take into account any changes made to the language of the United States Department of Justice's Propose Final Judgment as entered in United States of America v. Apple, Inc., et al., Case No. 12-cv-2826, in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York. The terms set forth in the Order and Stipulated Injunction shall govern the enforcement of this Section III.

IV. MONETARY PAYMENTS

A. HarperCollins agrees to pay to the Plaintiff States the sum of $19.93 million for Consumer compensation for alleged actual losses arising from the acts alleged in the Complaint. This amount shall be paid to the Plaintiff States, c/o the Escrow Agent appointed pursuant to Section V.A. within thirty (30) days of the Court entering the Preliminary Approval Order. The Escrow Agent shall establish the HarperCollins Consumer Compensation Settlement Account from the monies received from HarperCollins under this Paragraph. These monies, plus any accrued interest, shall be used to fund the Consumer distribution as described in Section VI.A. The Escrow Agent shall only distribute funds in the HarperCollins Consumer Compensation Settlement Account pursuant to a Court-approved Distribution Plan which has become Final within the meaning of Section I.K.

B. The $19.93 million to be paid by HarperCollins for Consumer compensation shall be reduced proportionately by the percentage of HarperCollins' E-book sales for 2011 attributable to each State, Commonwealth, or Territory that does not exercise its option to participate in this Settlement Agreement.

C. HarperCollins further agrees to pay to the Plaintiff States the sum of $2,541,666.66 for their costs of investigation and litigation and other related costs as provided in Section VI.B. This amount shall be paid to the Plaintiff States, c/o the Escrow Agent appointed pursuant to Section V.A. herein within thirty (30) days of the Court entering the Preliminary Approval Order. The Escrow Agent shall establish the States' Compensation Settlement Account from the monies received from HarperCollins under this Paragraph, in addition to the funds received from Hachette and Simon & Schuster. These monies, plus any accrued interest, shall be apportioned among the Plaintiff States in a manner to be determined among and between them as set forth in Section VI.B. HarperCollins shall pay this amount in full, regardless of the percentage of States and Territories participating in the Settlement Agreement, and there shall be no reduction for non-participating States.

D. HarperCollins will also pay its per capita share of all reasonable Settlement Administration Costs. The per capita share will be determined by the number of settling parties that have executed an agreement with Plaintiff States that is substantially similar to this Settlement Agreement by June 11, 2012. The Escrow Agent shall establish the Settlement Cost Account from the monies received from settling parties pursuant to this Paragraph and Paragraph E. These monies, plus any accrued interest, shall be used to pay the Settlement Administration Costs pursuant to Section VI.C. The Escrow Agent shall pay invoices only as provided in this Settlement Agreement, by an order of the Court, or pursuant to Written Direction.

E. Payments for the Settlement Cost Account will be made as follows:

1. $100,000 shall be paid by HarperCollins to the Plaintiff States, c/o the Escrow Agent within five (5) business days of the execution of this Settlement Agreement by Liaison Counsel for the States and HarperCollins.
2. $650,000 shall be paid by HarperCollins to the Plaintiff States, c/o the Escrow Agent within five (5) business days of the filing of the Motion for Preliminary Approval.
3. Upon notice that additional funds are necessary to pay Settlement Administration Costs, HarperCollins shall make a supplemental deposit of its per capita share into the Settlement Cost Account within ten (10) business days of such notice.
4. After counsel for the Liaison States have confirmed in writing that all incurred, committed or anticipated settlement administration costs have been paid or accounted for, the Escrow Agent shall refund to HarperCollins its per capita share of the unused funds in the Settlement Cost Account within a reasonable period of time.

F. HarperCollins warrants that, as of the date of this Settlement Agreement, it is not insolvent, nor will its payment to the Settlement Accounts render it insolvent within the meaning of and/or for the purposes of the United States Bankruptcy Code. If a case is commenced with respect to HarperCollins under Title 11 of the United States Code (Bankruptcy), or a trustee, receiver or conservator is appointed under any similar law, and in the event of the entry of a final order of a court of competent jurisdiction determining the payment of the principal amount of the Settlement Accounts and any accrued interest, or any portion thereof, by or on behalf of HarperCollins, to be a preference, voidable transfer, fraudulent transfer or similar transaction, and if pursuant to an order of a court of competent jurisdiction monies paid by HarperCollins pursuant to this Settlement Agreement are either not delivered or are returned to HarperCollins or the trustee, receiver, or conservator appointed by a court in any bankruptcy proceeding with respect to HarperCollins, the releases given and judgment entered in favor of HarperCollins pursuant to this Settlement Agreement shall be null and void.

G. The payments hereunder do not constitute nor shall they be treated as payments in lieu of treble damages, fines, penalties, punitive recoveries or forfeitures.

H. The payments made by HarperCollins to the Settlement Accounts (including the additional payments contemplated pursuant to Paragraph E.3) shall be the total amount to be paid by HarperCollins under this Settlement Agreement or in connection with Released Claims.

I. Except as otherwise provided in this Settlement Agreement, upon the Effective Date all remaining interest or right of HarperCollins in or to the Settlement Accounts shall be absolutely and forever extinguished.

V. SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATION

A. The Escrow Agent for the Settlement Accounts shall be determined by the Plaintiff States, after consultation with HarperCollins, by separate written agreement. The costs of the Escrow Agent shall be borne by HarperCollins, pursuant to Sections IV.D and E. Other than maintaining an account to meet short-term obligations, the Escrow Agent shall invest the funds in the Settlement Accounts in obligations of, or obligations guaranteed by, the United States of America or any of its departments or agencies, to obtain the highest available return on investment, and shall reinvest the proceeds of these instruments as they mature in similar instruments at their then current market rates. The Escrow Agent shall bear all risks related to the investment of the escrow funds.

B. The Escrow Agent shall not disburse the funds of the Settlement Accounts except by an order of the Court or pursuant to Written Direction.

C. All funds held by the Escrow Agent shall be deemed to be in custodia legis of the Court, and shall remain subject to the jurisdiction of the Court, until the funds shall be distributed pursuant to the Settlement Agreement and/or further order(s) of the Court.

D. In addition to the Escrow Agent, the Plaintiff States, after consultation with HarperCollins, may employ a claims administrator in order to facilitate the provision of notice and to distribute and/or administer the distribution of the funds in the HarperCollins Consumer Compensation Settlement Account in accordance with the terms of this Settlement Agreement. The costs of such claims administrator shall be borne by HarperCollins, pursuant to Sections IV.D and E.

E. If this Settlement Agreement is not approved or is terminated, canceled, voided or fails to become effective, all monies paid into the Settlement Accounts, including any interest accrued thereon, shall be refunded to HarperCollins, reduced by the amount of actual out-of-pocket costs and expenses incurred or committed for Settlement Administration Costs as of the date of disapproval, cancellation, termination or voiding. In such event, the refund shall occur within twenty (20) business days of the cancellation, termination or voiding. In the case of disapproval by the Court, refund shall occur within five (5) business days of the Court's decision becoming Final, as defined in Section I.K.

F. If this Settlement Agreement is not approved or is terminated, canceled, voided or fails to become effective, Plaintiff States shall retain full rights to assert any and all causes of action against HarperCollins, including the right to amend the Complaint to include additional allegations, claims, causes of action and requests for relief and HarperCollins shall retain any and all defenses thereto.

G. Tax Treatment of Settlement Accounts

1. Settling Parties and Escrow Agent agree to treat the Settlement Accounts as being, at all times from and after expiration or waiver of the period within which HarperCollins may void this Settlement Agreement under Section X, a “qualified settlement fund” within the meaning of Treas. Reg. § 1.468B-1(a). In addition, the Escrow Agent and, as required, settling Parties shall jointly and timely make such elections as necessary or advisable to carry out the provisions of this Section V.G., including the “relation-back election” (as defined in Treas. Reg. § 1.468B-1(j)(2)(ii)), back to the earliest permitted date. Such elections shall be made in compliance with the procedures and requirements contained in such regulation. It shall be the responsibility of the Escrow Agent to timely and properly prepare and deliver the necessary documentation for signature by all necessary Parties, and thereafter to cause the appropriate filing to occur.

2. For the purpose of § 468B of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and the regulations promulgated thereunder, the “administrator” shall be the Escrow Agent. The Escrow Agent shall timely and properly file all informational and other tax returns necessary or advisable with respect to the Settlement Accounts (including without limitation the returns described in Treas. Reg. § 1.468B-2(k) and (l)). Such returns (as well as the election described in Section V.G.1.) shall be consistent with this Section V.G and in all events shall reflect that all taxes (including any estimated taxes, interest or penalties) on the income earned by the Settlement Accounts shall be paid out of the Settlement Accounts.

3. All taxes (including any estimated taxes, interest or penalties) arising with respect to the income earned by the Settlement Accounts, including any taxes that may be imposed upon HarperCollins with respect to any income earned by the Settlement Accounts for any period during which the Settlement Accounts do not qualify as a “qualified settlement fund” for federal, state, or local income tax purposes (“Taxes”) shall be paid out of the Settlement Accounts and in all events HarperCollins and its insurers shall have no liability or responsibility for such Taxes or the filing of any tax returns or other documents with the Internal Revenue Service or any other state or local taxing authority in respect of such Taxes. Taxes shall be treated as, and considered to be, a cost of administration of the Settlement Agreement and shall be timely paid by the Escrow Agent out of the Settlement Accounts without prior order from the Court and the Escrow Agent shall be obligated (notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary) to withhold from distribution to Plaintiff States any funds necessary to pay such amounts including the establishment for adequate reserves for any Taxes (as well as any amounts that may be required to be withheld under Treas. Reg. § 1.468B-2(l)(2)); HarperCollins and its insurers are not responsible and shall have no liability therefore or for any reporting requirements that may relate thereto. The Parties agree to cooperate with the Escrow Agent, each other, and their tax attorneys and accountants to the extent reasonably necessary to carry out the provisions of this Section V.G. For purposes of this Section V.G., references to the Settlement Accounts shall include the Settlement Accounts and any earnings thereon.

VI. SETTLEMENT DISBURSEMENTS

A. Distribution to Consumers: All funds in the HarperCollins Consumer Compensation Settlement Account shall be distributed, according to a Court-approved Distribution Plan, for the benefit of Consumers who have not filed with the Court valid and timely requests for exclusion from this settlement.

1. Plaintiff States will strive to devise a Distribution Plan that will maximize direct Consumer recovery, minimize any residue, and minimize administrative expenses consistent with the provision of fair, adequate and reasonable notice to Consumers. The Distribution Plan shall be devised by the Plaintiff States, after consultation with HarperCollins, and shall, at minimum and to the extent practicable, provide Consumers with the option of receiving payment in the form of a check or a credit for the purchase of either print books or E-books. The Distribution Plan shall provide that credits may be used for any print book or E-book purchase, regardless of publisher. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, credits may be applied to purchases for a period of one (1) year from the date they are made available to Consumers. The Distribution Plan may also contain provisions for multiple distributions, or a single, later distribution to Consumers if appropriate.

2. Any amount remaining in the HarperCollins Consumer Compensation Settlement Account after redemption of all cash and credits within the time period approved by the Court will be subject to any applicable Plaintiff State's unclaimed property laws. If any residual amount thereafter remains in the HarperCollins Consumer Compensation Settlement Account, subject to any other applicable state law prohibiting cy pres distribution and mandating a different distribution by a particular Plaintiff State of its share of any residual amount, it shall be distributed by the Plaintiff States for cy pres purposes to one or more charitable organizations whose purposes relate to reading, literacy, or access by the public to electronic books.

3. The Parties agree and understand that any proposed Distribution Plan is to be considered by the Court separately from the Court's consideration of the fairness, reasonableness and adequacy of the settlement set forth in the Settlement Agreement, and any order or proceedings relating to the Distribution Plan shall not operate to terminate or cancel the Settlement Agreement or affect the finality of the Court's Final Judgment approving the Settlement Agreement and the settlement set forth herein, or any other orders entered pursuant to the Settlement Agreement.

4. The Distribution Plan shall be submitted to the Court for approval in connection with the Plaintiff States' Motion for Preliminary Approval of the Settlement ("Motion for Preliminary Approval").

B. Distribution of Compensation to Plaintiff States: The States' Compensation Settlement Account shall be used to reimburse counsel for the Plaintiff States for payment of attorneys' fees, costs, administrative expenses incurred by Plaintiff States, and as other payments. Such Account shall be apportioned among the Plaintiff States at their sole discretion. Such apportionments shall then be used collectively or individually by the Plaintiff States' Attorneys General for one or more of the following purposes:

1. Reimbursement for Plaintiff States' consultation or expert fees, including reimbursement of any grants paid to the Plaintiff States in connection with the National Association of Attorneys General Milk Fund Account ("NAAG Milk Fund" or "Fund") for consultant and expert fees expended from the Fund.
2. Reimbursement of attorneys' fees, and investigation, litigation and settlement administration cost expenses incurred by any Plaintiff State;
3. Payment for the ongoing investigation and litigation involving the E-books market;
4. Antitrust or consumer protection enforcement by the Attorney General of such State, provided that, with respect to the State of Washington, these funds shall only be used for antitrust enforcement;

5. Deposit into a state antitrust or consumer protection account, (e.g., revolving account, trust account), for use in accordance with the state laws governing that account, provided that, with respect to the State of Washington, these funds shall only be used for antitrust enforcement;
6. Deposit into a fund exclusively dedicated to assisting the state Attorney General to defray the cost of experts, economists, and consultants in multistate antitrust investigations and litigations; or
7. As otherwise required or provided by the applicable state law enacted as of the Effective Date of this Settlement Agreement.

C. Disbursement for Payment of Administrative Costs: Upon Written Direction or Court Order, the Settlement Cost Account shall be used by the Escrow Agent to pay the Settlement Administration Costs.

VII. NOTICE AND SETTLEMENT HEARING

A. Within sixty-eight (68) days after execution of this Settlement Agreement by Liaison Counsel for the Plaintiff States and HarperCollins, Liaison Counsel for Plaintiff States shall file the Motion for Preliminary Approval with the Court. The motion shall request entry of a preliminary approval order (the "Preliminary Approval Order"). Such Preliminary Approval Order shall include, among other things: (1) the preliminary approval of the settlement set forth in this Settlement Agreement as fair, reasonable and adequate and in the best interests of Consumers in the Plaintiff States, (2) a finding that the State Attorneys General are the superior representatives of natural persons in the Plaintiff States, (3) approval of a Notice Plan, including when the Notice shall be disseminated and the length of the Notice Period, (4) approval of a Distribution Plan that includes the time period during which eligible Consumers can object, exclude themselves, and/or obtain credits and/or a check, and (5) a schedule for a hearing by the Court after notice is given (the "Settlement Hearing") to approve the settlement of the litigation initiated by the Complaint, as set forth herein. At least five (5) days prior to filing their Motion for Preliminary Approval, the Plaintiff States shall provide a copy of such motion (including all exhibits and attachments of such motion) to HarperCollins for review and comment.

B. Liaison Counsel for Plaintiff States will provide HarperCollins a substantially final copy of the Notice Plan, including the Notice, at least five (5) business days prior to filing the Motion for Preliminary Approval.

C. Liaison Counsel for the Plaintiff States shall disseminate Notice of the Settlement Agreement to potentially affected Consumers as soon as practicable after entry of the Preliminary Approval Order. The Parties contemplate a Notice Period of at least sixty (60) days, unless another time period is set by the Court.

D. Within forty-five (45) days following the conclusion of the Notice Period, Liaison Counsel for Plaintiff States shall file with this Court a motion seeking final approval of the Settlement Agreement, including a determination by the Court (1) that the Settlement Agreement is approved finally as fair, reasonable and adequate, (2) that a Final Judgment approving the Settlement Agreement, substantially in the form of Attachment A, should be entered, (3) that the Order and Stipulated Injunction, substantially in the form of Attachment B, should be entered, and (4) that an award of attorneys' fees, expenses and other payments should be made from the States' Compensation Settlement Account to counsel for the Plaintiff States pursuant to Section VI.B.

VIII. RELEASED CLAIMS

A. In consideration of the monetary and injunctive provisions contained in this Settlement Agreement, each Plaintiff State will be deemed, upon the Effective Date, to have (and by operation of the Final Judgment shall have), fully, finally, and forever released HarperCollins, HarperCollins' parent and affiliated entities and their officers, directors, employees, and attorneys (collectively "Releasees") from all Claims that were asserted or could have been asserted by any Consumers who did not timely file with the Court a valid request for exclusion from this settlement. The Final Judgment shall be deemed res judicata as to any such released Claim.

B. In further consideration of the monetary and injunctive provisions contained in this Settlement Agreement, each Plaintiff State will be deemed, upon the Effective Date, to have released the Releasees from all Claims that were asserted or could have been asserted by each Plaintiff State's Attorney General in his or her sovereign capacity as chief law enforcement officer of his or her respective state.

C. In further consideration of the monetary and injunctive provisions contained in this Settlement Agreement, each Plaintiff State's Attorney General covenants and agrees, to the fullest extent permitted by law, that it shall not hereafter seek to establish liability or assert Claims, in whole or in part, on behalf of itself or any other person or entity or class thereof, against the Releasees.

D. The Plaintiff States and HarperCollins expressly agree that they do not intend this Settlement Agreement nor any documents executed or submitted pursuant to this Settlement Agreement to be construed as a release or otherwise affect any rights Plaintiff States have or may have against any other entity whosoever, including Hachette, Simon & Schuster, Holtzbrinck Publishers, LLC, d/b/a MacMillan, Penguin Group (USA), Inc., Apple, Inc., or any of their parents, affiliated entities, officers, directors, employees, or attorneys. The Final Judgment approving this Settlement Agreement shall include a provision that this Settlement Agreement and anything done pursuant thereto shall not constitute a release except as to Releasees, and the Plaintiff States and Consumers reserve their rights as aforesaid.

E. To the fullest extent permitted by law, the Parties each expressly waive any right or benefit available to them under Section 1542 of the California Civil Code, which provides as follows: "A general release does not extend to claims which the creditor does not know or suspect to exist in his favor at the time of executing the release, which if known by him must have materially affected his settlement with the debtor," and all provisions, rights and benefits conferred by any law of any state or territory of the United States, or principle of common law or foreign law, that is similar, comparable or equivalent in effect to Section 1542 of the California Civil Code.

IX. COOPERATION AND IMPLEMENTATION

A. The Parties, and their respective counsel, agree to cooperate fully to implement the terms and conditions of this Settlement Agreement.

B. If a Plaintiff State determines that HarperCollins is not in compliance with the terms of the Settlement Agreement, it shall give HarperCollins written notice of such non-compliance and HarperCollins shall have fifteen (15) working days to respond in writing. If Plaintiff State is not satisfied with HarperCollins' response, it shall notify HarperCollins in writing and HarperCollins shall have fifteen (15) working days to cure such non-compliance. If after such time a Plaintiff State shall determine that HarperCollins is still not in compliance, such Plaintiff State may seek the civil remedies available to it under the terms of the Final Judgment and Order and Stipulated Injunction.

C. This Settlement Agreement shall not be used or construed by any person as an admission of liability by HarperCollins to any party or person, or be deemed evidence of any violation of any statute or law or admission of any liability or wrongdoing by HarperCollins or of the truth of any of the claims or allegations contained in the Complaint.

X. AGREEMENT VOIDABLE

A. This Settlement Agreement shall only be voidable pursuant to this Section X.

B. This Settlement Agreement is voidable at the option of HarperCollins if, after sixty (60) days following the execution of this Settlement Agreement by the Liaison States and HarperCollins, the Attorneys General of a number of states accounting for ninety percent (90%) of HarperCollins' 2011 national dollar-weighted sales volume of E-books have not elected to participate in the Settlement Agreement.

C. HarperCollins must exercise its option to void this Settlement Agreement pursuant to Paragraph B by notifying the Liaison Counsel for Plaintiff States in writing within five (5) days of the expiration of the sixty (60) day time frame specified in Paragraph B. This Settlement Agreement shall not be voidable pursuant to Paragraph B after that date.

D. This Agreement is void if the settlement embodied herein is not approved by the Court.

E. If, during the Notice Period, Consumers who otherwise would be represented by the Plaintiff States have filed with the Court valid and timely requests for exclusion from this settlement, Liaison Counsel for Plaintiff States shall promptly provide HarperCollins with all the requests for exclusion. HarperCollins has the option to void this Settlement Agreement if the following two percentages exceed 10%, combined: (1) the percentage of HarperCollins' 2011 national dollar-weighted sales volume of E-books represented by states that have elected not to participate in the Settlement Agreement, and (2) the percentage of the total Named Publisher E-book sales volume for the period from April 1, 2010 to May 21, 2012 represented by Consumers requesting exclusion from this settlement. HarperCollins must exercise its option to void this Settlement Agreement, as set forth in this Paragraph, no later than ten (10) business days after receiving the information about the Consumers requesting exclusion from this settlement.

XI. BENEFIT AND BINDING EFFECT

A. The terms of this Settlement Agreement shall be binding on, and shall inure to the benefit of the Parties and their successors. The Parties expressly disclaim any intention to create rights under this Settlement Agreement which may be enforced by any other person under any circumstances whatsoever.

B. The terms of this Settlement Agreement may be entered into by the Attorney General of any State, Commonwealth, and Territory, who takes the following actions prior to the date that is sixty (60) days after the execution of this Settlement Agreement by Liaison Counsel for the Plaintiff States and HarperCollins:

1. Signs a signature page which will be appended onto the body of the Settlement Agreement which will be filed with the Court; and
2. Designates the Liaison Counsel for Plaintiff States to represent such State, Commonwealth, or Territory and agrees to be named as a plaintiff in the Complaint to be filed by the Plaintiff States in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York alleging an unlawful agreement to fix, maintain or stabilize retail prices of E-books in violation of federal antitrust laws.

XII. MISCELLANEOUS

A. HarperCollins may file the Settlement Agreement and/or the Final Judgment in any action that may be brought against it in order to support a defense or counterclaim based on principles of res judicata, collateral estoppel, release, good faith settlement, judgment, bar or reduction or any other theory of claim preclusion or issue preclusion or similar defense or counterclaim.

FINAL JUDGMENT

WHEREAS Plaintiff States filed a complaint in this Court on <<date>> against E-book publishers HarperCollins, Hachette and Simon & Schuster (collectively "Defendants") alleging an unlawful agreement to fix, maintain or stabilize prices of E-books in violation of federal antitrust laws ("Complaint");

WHEREAS Plaintiff States seek damages and injunctive relief in their sovereign capacity and as parens patriae on behalf of Consumers residing in the Plaintiff States who have purchased E-books from Named Publishers;

WHEREAS, in order to resolve any and all disputes arising from the Complaint, the Plaintiff States and each Defendant executed a Settlement Agreement (the "Settlement Agreements") which were filed with the Court on <<date>> and are incorporated by reference herein;

WHEREAS, the Settlement Agreements do not constitute an admission of liability by any Defendant;

WHEREAS, in full and final settlement of the claims set forth in the Complaint, Defendants have paid compensatory damages, costs of notice and settlement administration and payments to the Plaintiff States;

WHEREAS, Defendants' payments do not constitute nor will be treated as payments in lieu of treble damages, fines, penalties, punitive recoveries or forfeitures;

WHEREAS, pursuant to a Preliminary Approval Order, notice of the Settlement Agreements was given pursuant to Court order in accordance with 15 U.S.C. § 15c and the requirements of due process. An opportunity to be heard was given to all persons requesting to be heard in accordance with this Court's orders. The Court has reviewed the terms of the Settlement Agreements, the submissions of the parties in support of them, and the comments received in response to the notice. A hearing was held on _____, 2012;

NOW, THEREFORE, without trial or adjudication of any issue of law or fact, before the taking of any testimony at trial, without the admission of liability or wrongdoing by any Defendant and upon the consent of the parties hereto, this Court finds as follows:

I. DEFINITIONS

All capitalized terms in this Final Judgment shall have the same meaning as defined in the Settlement Agreements among Plaintiff States and Hachette Book Group, Inc., Simon & Schuster, Inc. and HarperCollins Publishers L.L.C, individually, dated June 11, 2012.

II. JURISDICTION

This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this action and over the Defendants. The Complaint states a claim upon which relief may be granted against Defendants under Section 1 of the Sherman Act, as amended, 15 U.S.C. § 1, Section 4c of the Clayton Act, 15 U.S.C. § 15c, and Section 16 of the Clayton Act, 15 U.S.C. § 26. Jurisdiction lies in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 15.

III. APPLICABILITY

A. This Final Judgment shall apply to the Plaintiff States, Defendants and Consumers in the Plaintiff States who did not file with the Court valid and timely requests for exclusion from the Settlement Agreements.

B. Except with respect to Releasees, this Final Judgment does not constitute a release or otherwise affect any rights the Plaintiff States and Consumers have or may have against any other entity whatsoever, including Apple Inc., Holtzbrinck Publishers, LLC, d/b/a Macmillan, Penguin Group (USA), Inc., or any of their parents, affiliated entities, officers, directors, employees or attorneys.

IV. SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT APPROVAL

The Court has determined that the Settlement Agreements are, in all respects fair, reasonable, and adequate and in the best interest of Consumers in the Plaintiff States, and that notice thereof comports in all respects with 15 U.S.C. § 15c and due process, and hereby approves the Settlement Agreements.

V. CONSUMER DISTRIBUTION PLAN

The Consumer Distribution Plan set forth in the Plaintiff States' Motion for Final Approval of the Settlement Agreements is fair, reasonable and adequate and is hereby approved. Plaintiff States are directed to cause the consumer funds to be distributed in accordance with said Consumer Distribution Plan.

VI. INJUNCTION

The Court approves the injunctive relief as set forth in the attached Order and Stipulated Injunction, which is incorporated herein by reference. I. JURISDICTION

As used in this Order and Stipulated Injunction:

- A. "Agency Agreement" means an agreement between an E-book Publisher and an Ebook Retailer under which the E-book Publisher Sells E-books to consumers through the E-book Retailer, which under the agreement acts as an agent of the E-book Publisher and is paid a commission in connection with the Sale of one or more of the E-book Publisher's E-books.

F. "E-book Retailer" means any Person that lawfully Sells (or seeks to lawfully Sell) E-books to consumers in the United States, or through which a Named Publisher, under an Agency Agreement, Sells E-books to consumers. For purposes of this Order and Stipulated Injunction, Publishers and all other Persons whose primary business is book publishing are not E-book Retailers.

1. the Retail Price at which an E-book Retailer or, under an Agency Agreement, an E-book Publisher Sells one or more E-books to consumers depends in any way on the Retail Price, or discounts from the Retail Price, at which any other E-book Retailer or the E-book Publisher, under an Agency Agreement, through any other E-book Retailer Sells the same E-book(s) to consumers;
2. the Wholesale Price at which the E-book Publisher Sells one or more E-books to that E-book Retailer for Sale to consumers depends in any way on the Wholesale Price at which the E-book Publisher Sells the same E-book(s) to any other E-book Retailer for Sale to consumers; or

For purposes of this Final Judgment, it will not constitute a Price MFN under subsection 3 of this definition if a Defendant agrees, at the request of an E-book Retailer, to meet more favorable pricing, discounts, or allowances offered to the E-book Retailer by another E-book Publisher for the period during which the other E-book Publisher provides that additional compensation, so long as that agreement is not or does not result from a pre-existing agreement that requires the Defendant to meet all requests by the E-book Retailer for more favorable pricing within the terms of the agreement.

III. APPLICABILITY

This Order and Stipulated Injunction applies to Defendants and all other Persons in active concert or participation with any of them who receive actual notice of this Order and Stipulated Injunction by personal service or otherwise.

IV. REQUIRED CONDUCT

A. Within seven days after entry of this Order and Stipulated Injunction, each Defendant shall have terminated any agreement with Apple relating to the Sale of E-books that was executed prior to April 11, 2012.

B. For each agreement between a Defendant and an E-book Retailer other than Apple that (1) restricts, limits, or impedes the E-book Retailer's ability to set, alter, or reduce the Retail Price of any E-book or to offer price discounts or any other form of promotions to encourage consumers to Purchase one or more E-books; or (2) contains a Price MFN, the Defendant shall have notified the E-book Retailer, no later than April 21, 2012, that the E-book Retailer may terminate the agreement with thirty-days notice and shall, thirty days after the E-book Retailer provides such notice, release the E-book Retailer from the agreement. For each such agreement that the E-book Retailer has not terminated within thirty days after entry of this Order and Stipulated Injunction, each Defendant shall, as soon as permitted under the agreement, take each step required under the agreement to cause the agreement to be terminated and not renewed or extended.

C. Defendants shall notify the Liaison Counsel for Plaintiff States in writing at least sixty days in advance of the formation or material modification of any joint venture or other business arrangement relating to the Sale, development, or promotion of E-books in the United States in which a Defendant and at least one other E-book Publisher (including another Named Publisher) are participants or partial or complete owners. Such notice shall describe the joint venture or other business arrangement, identify all E-book Publishers that are parties to it, and attach the most recent version or draft of the agreement, contract, or other document(s) formalizing the joint venture or other business arrangement. Within thirty days after a Defendant provides notification of the joint venture or business arrangement, the Plaintiff States may make a written request for additional information. If the Plaintiff States make such a request, the Defendant shall not proceed with the planned formation or material modification of the joint venture or business arrangement until thirty days after substantially complying with such additional request(s) for information. The failure of the Plaintiff States to request additional information or to bring an action under the antitrust laws to challenge the formation or material modification of the joint venture shall neither give rise to any inference of lawfulness nor limit in any way the right of the Plaintiff States to investigate the formation, material modification, or any other aspects or activities of the joint venture or business arrangement and to bring actions to prevent or restrain violations of the antitrust laws.

The notification requirements of this Section IV.C shall not apply to ordinary course business arrangements between a Defendant and another E-book Publisher (not a Named Publisher) that do not relate to the Sale of E-books to consumers, or to business arrangements the primary or predominant purpose or focus of which involves: (i) E-book Publishers co-publishing one or more specifically identified E-book titles or a particular author's E-books; (ii) a Defendant licensing to or from another E-book Publisher the publishing rights to one or more specifically identified E-book titles or a particular author's E-books; (iii) a Defendant providing technology services to or receiving technology services from another E-book Publisher (not a Named Publisher) or licensing rights in technology to or from another E-book Publisher; or (iv) a Defendant distributing E-books published by another E-book Publisher (not a Named Publisher).

D. Each Defendant shall furnish to the Liaison Counsel for Plaintiff States (1) within seven days after entry of this Order and Stipulated Injunction, one complete copy of each agreement, executed, renewed, or extended on or after January 1, 2012, between the Defendant and any E-book Retailer relating to the Sale of E-books, and, (2) thereafter, on a quarterly basis, each such agreement executed, renewed, or extended since the Defendant's previous submission of agreements to the Plaintiff States.

V. PROHIBITED CONDUCT

A. For two years, Defendants shall not restrict, limit, or impede an E-book Retailer's ability to set, alter, or reduce the Retail Price of any E-book or to offer price discounts or any other form of promotions to encourage consumers to Purchase one or more E-books, such two-year period to run separately for each E-book Retailer, at the option of the Defendant, from either:

1. the termination of an agreement between the Defendant and the E-book Retailer that restricts, limits, or impedes the E-book Retailer's ability to set, alter, or reduce the Retail Price of any E-book or to offer price discounts or any other form of promotions to encourage consumers to Purchase one or more E-books; or
2. the date on which the Defendant notifies the E-book Retailer in writing that the Defendant will not enforce any term(s) in its agreement with the E-book Retailer that restrict, limit, or impede the E-book Retailer from setting, altering, or reducing the Retail Price of one or more E-books, or from offering price discounts or any other form of promotions to encourage consumers to Purchase one or more E-books.

Each Defendant shall notify the Liaison Counsel for Plaintiff States of the option it has selected for each E-book Retailer.

B. Until April 11, 2014, Defendants shall not enter into any agreement with any E-book Retailer that restricts, limits, or impedes the E-book Retailer from setting, altering, or reducing the Retail Price of one or more E-books, or from offering price discounts or any other form of promotions to encourage consumers to Purchase one or more E-books.

C. Defendants shall not enter into any agreement with an E-book Retailer relating to the Sale of E-books that contains a Price MFN.

D. Defendants shall not retaliate against, or urge any other E-book Publisher or E-book Retailer to retaliate against, an E-book Retailer for engaging in any activity that the Defendants are prohibited by Sections V.A, V.B, and VI.B.2 of this Order and Stipulated Injunction from restricting, limiting, or impeding in any agreement with an E-book Retailer. After the expiration of prohibitions in Sections V.A and V.B of this Order and Stipulated Injunction, this Section V.D shall not prohibit any Defendant from unilaterally entering into or enforcing any agreement with an E-book Retailer that restricts, limits, or impedes the E-book Retailer from setting, altering, or reducing the Retail Price of any of the Defendant's E-books or from offering price discounts or any other form of promotions to encourage consumers to Purchase any of the Defendant's E-books.

E. Defendants shall not enter into or enforce any agreement, arrangement, understanding, plan, program, combination, or conspiracy with any E-book Publisher (including another Named Publisher) to raise, stabilize, fix, set, or coordinate the Retail Price or Wholesale Price of any E-book or fix, set, or coordinate any term or condition relating to the Sale of E-books.

This Section V.E shall not prohibit a Defendant from entering into and enforcing agreements relating to the distribution of another E-book Publisher's E-books (not including the E-books of another Named Publisher) or to the co-publication with another E-book Publisher of specifically identified E-book titles or a particular author's E-books, or from participating in output-enhancing industry standard-setting activities relating to E-book security or technology.

F. A Defendant (including each officer of each parent of the Defendant who exercises direct control over the Defendant's business decisions or strategies) shall not convey or otherwise communicate, directly or indirectly (including by communicating indirectly through an E-book Retailer with the intent that the E-book Retailer convey information from the communication to another E-book Publisher or knowledge that it is likely to do so), to any other E-book Publisher (including to an officer of a parent of a Named Publisher) any competitively sensitive information, including:

1. its business plans or strategies;
 2. its past, present, or future wholesale or retail prices or pricing strategies for books sold in any format (e.g., print books, E-books, or audio books);
 3. any terms in its agreement(s) with any retailer of books Sold in any format;
- or
4. any terms in its agreement(s) with any author.

This Section V.F shall not prohibit a Defendant from communicating (a) in a manner and through media consistent with common and reasonable industry practice, the cover prices or wholesale or retail prices of books sold in any format to potential purchasers of those books; or (b) information the Defendant needs to communicate in connection with (i) its enforcement or assignment of its intellectual property or contract rights, (ii) a contemplated merger, acquisition, or purchase or sale of assets, (iii) its distribution of another E-book Publisher's E-books, or (iv) a business arrangement under which E-book Publishers agree to co-publish, or an E-book Publisher agrees to license to another E-book Publisher the publishing rights to, one or more specifically identified E-book titles or a particular author's E-books.

VI. PERMITTED CONDUCT

A. Nothing in this Order and Stipulated Injunction shall prohibit a Defendant unilaterally from compensating a retailer, including an E-book Retailer, for valuable marketing or other promotional services rendered.

B. Notwithstanding Sections V.A and V.B of this Order and Stipulated Injunction, a Defendant may enter into Agency Agreements with E-book Retailers under which the aggregate dollar value of the price discounts or any other form of promotions to encourage consumers to Purchase one or more of the Defendant's E-books (as opposed to advertising or promotions engaged in by the E-book Retailer not specifically tied or directed to the Defendant's E-books) is restricted; provided that (1) such agreed restriction shall not interfere with the E-book Retailer's ability to reduce the final price paid by consumers to purchase the Defendant's E-books by an aggregate amount equal to the total commissions the Defendant pays to the E-book Retailer, over a period of at least one year, in connection with the Sale of the Defendant's E-books to consumers; (2) the Defendant shall not restrict, limit, or impede the E-book Retailer's use of the agreed funds to offer price discounts or any other form of promotions to encourage consumers to Purchase one or more E-books; and (3) the method of accounting for the E-book Retailer's promotional activity does not restrict, limit, or impede the E-book Retailer from engaging in any form of retail activity or promotion.

VII. ANTITRUST COMPLIANCE

Within thirty days after entry of the DOJ Final Judgment, each Defendant shall have designated its general counsel or chief legal officer, or an employee reporting directly to its general counsel or chief legal officer, as Antitrust Compliance Officer with responsibility for ensuring the Defendant's compliance with this Order and Stipulated Injunction.
